New York, Dec. 13, 1849.

The following are yesterday's proceedings:
The House assembled at the usual hour, and proceeded to ballot. There was but one ballot taken, which resulted as follows:

Brown 112; Durkee 26; Morehead 12; Stanley 13; McLaughlin 13; Winthrop 17; remainder scattering. Total 220.

Mr. Wilcox, Preston King, and two other Free-soil members voted for Brown, who came within two votes of being elected.

During the session Mr. Ashmun, of Mass., accused the Democratic party of having entered into a written agreement with the Free-soilers to secure the election of Mr. Brown. This was indignantly denied by some of the Southern members, but it was subsequently admitted by Mr. Brown, that he had promised Mr. Wilcox that certain committees should be so constituted as to meet the approval of Mr. Wilcox and his friends. This caused much excitement. Several of the Southern members desired to have their votes withdrawn.

The House adjourned amidst much confusion. Neither party now has a candidate. Wilcox has declined. The Whigs in caucus agreed to concentrate their votes on no particular man, and the Democrats have thrown Brown overboard in disgust.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13th.

The House met this morning, when a motion was made to go into the election of Speaker by ballot. This was lost. Several hours were subsequently occupied in debate by different members. The speeches of the Southern members were very eloquent. They declared themselves and the whole South ready to dissolve the Union if the Wilcox proviso was passed. They were prepared for this at all hazards. During the debate, very sharp words passed between Duer of N. Y., and Meade of Va.—Each called the other a "disunionist." Duer called Meade a liar. Meade rushed at him, and a general rush followed.

The Sergeant at Arms appeared and commanded order. A motion was made to adjourn but lost.

Great excitement prevailed, but order was finally restored. A duel is anticipated between Duer and Meade. The debate continued until near 4 o'clock, when the first ballot was taken for Speaker, viz: Mr. Brown, 112; Durkee 26; Morehead 12; Stanley 13; Winthrop 17; Butler 26; scattering 20. There being no choice, the House adjourned till to-morrow. The chances of an organization are very uncertain. Senate met and adjourned until to-morrow.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 13.

Advices have been received, announcing the arrival at Independence of a company of traders, who bring intelligence of further outrages having been committed by the Indians, including the murder of a party of 7 Americans by the Apaches.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 12th.—Very great confusion prevailed in the Senate to-day, during an angry debate of seven hours. Blake denounced Whittman as a living, moving traitor, who had for nine days prevented an organization. All propositions were voted down by a tie vote.

LATE FROM SANTA FE.—Dates from Santa Fe to the 30th of October have been received at St. Louis. The troops from Vegas had five Apaches prisoners, and offered them in exchange for Mr. White and daughter, who had been carried off by that tribe. Mr. Aubrey also offered one thousand dollars.

Thirty-six California emigrants were killed recently by the Indians, near the Copper Mines. The troops from El Paso went against the enemy. Three Mexicans were killed, El Paso, and several were seriously wounded of recently arrived Santa Fe. Indians were daily committing depredations around Santa Fe.

By dates from Chihuahua to the 30th of September, we learn that the cholera was raging there, seventy-five to one hundred dying daily.

Fort Barclay has been established on Moro river. Lieut. Simpson has selected a site for a Fort in the Nevada country.

RIOT.—SANDUSKY, Dec. 12.—Our peaceful city this evening about 7 o'clock, was the scene of a disgraceful riot. The celebrated Monk of La Trappe had announced a lecture on Priestcraft, &c., for to-morrow. Just as he was entering the hall he was surrounded and seized, dragged into the street and severely beaten with clubs. He was eventually rescued by the Mayor and others. One or two others were injured, being taken for the "Monk." It is reported that some pistols were fired. No arrests.

Don't fail to read the article headed "Mission to Austria." It is annihilating to the administration as well as to L. W. Webb. Never before did exclusively literary editors feel it necessary to enter the political arena, in such a style of broad condemnation as that article inflicts. Willis, remember, is a whig.

We have received several numbers of Jenks's new daily Lafayette Courier. It is full of spice, spirit, sound sense. It will succeed, and we hope it will also enrich its industrious editor.

The DAILY TRUE DELTA come to us from New Orleans. It is beautifully printed, and is edited with great ability. Notwithstanding New Orleans can boast of several other papers, unexcelled by any others, the new courier will undoubtedly receive the reward of merit.

NEW RAIL ROAD.—A bill is before the Legislature, providing for the extension of the line of rail road from Evansville to Vincennes, to Terre Haute, a route has been chartered south, from Henderson, opposite Evansville, to Nashville, upon which it is said operations will soon commence. Stock has been already subscribed on the line, 30 miles north of Evansville to Princeton, and lettings will soon be made. It is said that that part of the road in this State will not conflict with the interests connected with the Wabash and Erie canal. If this be true, we certainly should wish the road all success, for it will bring to us a great portion of the travel which now goes up the Ohio river from the South.

The pork packing establishments of L. Pugh & Co., and Stagg and Shays, at Cincinnati, were recently destroyed by fire. Total loss from $150,000 to $200,000.

We are gratified to be able to state that Hon. Geo. W. JULIEN, M. C., had so far recovered from his recent illness, as to leave for Washington on Tuesday morning last.—Richmond Jeffersonian, Dec. 14.

CORNS.—There has been 1,001,536 bushels of corn exported from this point, by the Wabash and Erie Canal, during the present year, being nearly double the amount shipped by the same source last year. The tolls on this single article amount to nearly one-half the receipts of the entire amount collected at the office here.—Lafayette, Ind. Courier.
